

This resource is an output from a Collaborative Enhancement Project supported and funded by QAA Membership. The project is led by The Careers Group of the University of London in partnership with City University of London, King's College London and the Centre for Online and Distance Education at the University of London. Find out more about Collaborative Enhancement Projects on the QAA website.

Alumni Sharing Lived Experiences

Context slides for a panel event

Context around this alumni panel

- Alumni will be asked questions around several topics related to their career and experience
- In the latter part of the panel, the questions will explore panellists experience of equality, diversity and inclusion in the workplace
- Alumni will be asked to talk honestly about their experiences (good / bad) about working in legal sector and in specific roles/companies.
- Their experiences will vary but some people may share challenging experiences that some people may find distressing / concerning
- Some panellists may choose not to answer some questions, and this will be respected

Expectations of all panel participants

- Panellists and students are reminded/requested to:
 - respect each other and the experiences they share
 - only share experiences they are comfortable with discussing with a large group
 - be aware that some discussion topics may be sensitive for some participants
 - Listen to each other experiences and reflect on how this compares with their experience / knowledge to date