

ORDINANCE 6

DELEGATION OF FUNCTIONS

DEFINITIONS

'Financial Regulations' set out the fundamental principles that underpin all transactions undertaken by or on behalf of the University

1. The Board of Trustees may in accordance with Statute 10 delegate its functions to:
 - 1.1 the Collegiate Council; or
 - 1.2 a committee it may establish in accordance with Statute 14 consisting of two or more individuals appointed by them, at least one of whom shall be a member of the Board of Trustees; or
 - 1.3 an appropriately qualified member or appropriately qualified members of the Board of Trustees; or
 - 1.4 an appropriately qualified member or appropriately qualified members of the University's staff.
2. Any delegation of functions will be clearly minuted, set out in written terms of reference, within Ordinances or in a list of standing functions delegated to the Collegiate Council, a committee, members of the Board of Trustees or to members of the University staff. These documents will specify the limits (including time or financial limits) or conditions on the exercise of such functions and the reporting arrangements.
3. With the exception of the Vice-Chancellor and the Collegiate Council no committee or persons to which functions have been delegated are permitted to delegate further those functions without the prior agreement of the Board of Trustees.
4. The Collegiate Council, subject to any limits or conditions specified by the Board of Trustees, may further delegate functions given to it by the Board of Trustees to:
 - 4.1 a committee it may establish in accordance with Statute 14 consisting of two or more individuals appointed by the Collegiate Council, at least one of whom shall be a member of the Collegiate Council; or
 - 4.2 an appropriately qualified member or appropriately qualified members of the Collegiate Council; or
 - 4.3 an appropriately qualified member or appropriately qualified members of the University's staff.
5. Any delegation of functions by the Collegiate Council will be clearly minuted, set out in written terms of reference, within Ordinances or in a list of standing functions delegated to a committee, members of the Collegiate Council or to members of the University staff. These documents will specify any limits (including time or financial limits) or conditions on the exercise of such functions and the reporting arrangements.
6. In the absence of the Vice-Chancellor the functions delegated to him/her may be exercised by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor. The Vice-Chancellor may delegate functions given to him/her subject to any limits or conditions specified by the Board of Trustees or the Collegiate Council, or set out in the University's Financial Regulations, but any such sub-delegation must be set out in writing and shall include any limits (including time or financial limits) or conditions on the exercise of such sub-delegation and the reporting arrangements required. Functions which have been sub-delegated by the Vice-Chancellor shall be reported to the Secretary of the Board of Trustees as soon as practicable. Standing delegated function shall be reviewed by the Board of Trustees annually.

7. In the exercise of all delegated functions committees and individuals must comply with the Statutes, Ordinances, Financial Regulations and all other University policies and procedures.
8. The terms of reference for any delegation by the Board of Trustees or the Collegiate Council and the list of standing functions delegated to members of the Board of Trustees, the Collegiate Council or members of the University's staff will be subject to review by the body which delegated the function.
9. The terms of reference of committees and the list of standing functions delegated will be included within the Ordinances and will be amended automatically to reflect any changes approved by the body which established the committee or delegated the function.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

AUDIT AND RISK ASSURANCE COMMITTEE

Terms of Reference

1. To advise the Board of Trustees on the appointment of the External Auditors, their audit fees, the provision of any non-audit services by the External Auditors and any questions of resignation or dismissal of the External Auditors.
2. To discuss, if necessary, with the External Auditors, before the audit begins, the nature and scope of the audit.
3. To discuss with the External Auditors problems and reservations arising from the interim and final audits, including a review of the management letter incorporating management responses, and any other matters the External Auditors may wish to discuss (in the absence of management where necessary).
4. To consider and advise the Board of Trustees on the appointment and terms of engagement of the internal audit service (and the head of internal audit, if applicable), the internal audit fees, the provision of any non-audit services by the Internal Auditors and any questions of resignation or dismissal of the Internal Auditors.
5. To review the Internal Auditors' audit risk assessment and strategy; to consider major findings of internal audit investigations and management's response; and to promote co-ordination between the Internal and External Auditors. The Committee will ensure that the resources made available for internal audit are sufficient to meet the University's needs (or make a recommendation to the Board of Trustees as appropriate).
6. To keep under review the effectiveness of the risk management, control and governance arrangements, including reference to the Strategic Risk Register, and to review the External Auditors' management letter, the Internal Auditors' annual report, and management responses.
7. To monitor the implementation of agreed audit-based recommendations, from whatever source.
8. To ensure that all significant unbudgeted losses have been properly investigated and that the Internal and External Auditors, and where appropriate the Office for Students (OfS), have been informed.
9. To monitor the University's policy on fraud and irregularity, including being notified of any action taken under that policy.
10. To satisfy itself that satisfactory arrangements are in place to promote economy, efficiency and effectiveness (value for money), and added value for students and key stakeholders.
11. To consider the Transparent Approach to Costing Return and recommend it to the Board of Trustees, prior to submission to the OfS.
12. To receive any relevant reports from the National Audit Office, OfS and other organisations.
13. To monitor annually the performance and effectiveness of External and Internal Auditors, including any matters affecting their objectivity, and to make recommendations to the Board of Trustees concerning their reappointment, where appropriate.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

14. To consider elements of the annual financial statements in the presence of the External Auditors, including the Auditors' formal opinion, the statement of members' responsibilities and the statement of internal control, in accordance with the OfS's Accounts Directions.
15. In the event of the merger or dissolution of the University, to ensure that the necessary actions are completed, including arranging for a final set of financial statements to be completed and signed. In the event of major change to the University's constitutional arrangements, to monitor and keep under review, during any transitional period, the effectiveness of the risk management, control and governance arrangements.

Ethical Acceptance of Donations

16. To evaluate the ethical and reputational risks of potential donations in accordance with the principles set out in sections 4.1 and 4.2 of the Ethical Acceptance of Donations Policy.
17. On reviewing the material provided, to advise the Vice-Chancellor whether the donation should be progressed, not progressed or further information be required, or whether the donation should be referred to the Board of Trustees for its consideration.

Other Matters

18. To consider and deal as appropriate with other such issues or matters referred to it by the Board of Trustees or the Vice-Chancellor.
19. To report to the Board of Trustees and make recommendations to the Vice-Chancellor as appropriate.

Reporting Procedures

20. Reports of the Committee's work will be circulated to the Board of Trustees.
21. The Committee will prepare an annual report covering the University's financial year and any significant issues up to the date of preparing the report. The report will be addressed to the Board of Trustees and the Vice-Chancellor, summarising the activity for the year. It will give the Committee's opinion on the adequacy and effectiveness of the University's arrangements for the following:
 - 21.1 risk management, control and governance (the risk management element includes the accuracy of the statement of internal control included with the annual statement of accounts);
 - 21.2 economy, efficiency and effectiveness (value for money); and
 - 21.3 management and quality assurance of data submitted to HESA and to the OfS and other funding bodies.
22. This opinion is based on the information presented to the Committee. The Audit and Risk Assurance Committee annual report should normally be submitted to the Board of Trustees before the members' responsibility statement in the annual financial statements is signed.

ORDINANCE 6 ANNEX 1

23. The Committee is authorised by the Board of Trustees to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice and to secure the attendance of non-members with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary, normally in consultation with the Vice-Chancellor and Chair of the Board of Trustees, as appropriate. It may incur reasonable costs in this respect, without the prior approval of the Board of Trustees.
24. The Audit and Risk Assurance Committee will review the audit aspects of the draft annual financial statements. These aspects will include the external audit opinion, the statement of members' responsibilities, the statement of internal control and any relevant issue raised in the External Auditors' management letter. The Committee should, where appropriate, confirm with the internal and external auditors that the effectiveness of the internal control system has been reviewed, and comment on this in its annual report to the Board of Trustees.

At least once a year the Committee should meet separately with the External and Internal Auditors without any officers present.

Members of the Committee shall, if necessary, have direct access to the External and Internal Auditors. The auditors engaged to provide an internal audit service shall, if necessary, have direct access to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Assurance Committee.
