Additional costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should budget for textbooks (this may well be in the region of £300 per year if you are taking four modules/courses in one year) and for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres on the website. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £94 per sitting when using London examination centres.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to certain fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All student fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students residing in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

When to pay

If your application is successful, you will receive an offer inviting you to register and pay the Programme Fees due. The Programme Fees above refer to modules/courses that commence in August and November 2023 and February and May 2024 sessions and effective from 1 June 2023. You must have paid your Programme Fees by the registration closing date for your chosen study session. The assessment fee is payable when you choose to enter for a written examination. Students will receive separate instructions about how to pay their examination fees/ resit fees and the entry deadline with their invite. Examinations take place in May or June each year; a resit session takes place in October/November and students will receive separate instructions.

You are permitted one free transfer between EMFSS Online programmes. A fee of £232 will be charged for each subsequent transfer between EMFSS Online programmes.

How to pay

Details on how to pay your fees are available on the website. Your payment provider may apply additional transaction fees, including in respect of any refunds. (If in doubt, please check with them before making a payment.) Further information about fee payment options can be found in the link above.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.
