Additional costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre. Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres on this page. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres. You will be charged £94 per sitting when using London examination centres.

From 2022-23, the University will charge an online examination administration fee of £10 for each examination paper held online. This fee will be charged at the point of exam entry and is in addition to the module fees as advertised for your programme.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to certain fees paid by students residing in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All Programme Fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students residing in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

What and when to pay

Programme Fees may be paid in one of two ways:

Either

1. a single payment covering the registration fee and all the module fees.

Or

2. at your initial point of registration, the registration fee plus the fees for the modules you wish to study that term. In subsequent terms, only the fees for any new modules studied are payable.

You must pay the registration/module fees by the registration closing date for your chosen study session.

The registration fee is payable in order to be registered as a University of London student. This is valid for a period of five years.

The module fee is payable for each module to be studied. This fee includes entry to the first examination for that module. Any subsequent attempts will be charged as indicated in the table above.

Additionally, where applicable, the following may apply:

An examination resit fee is payable when entering for an examination to resit a previously failed module, or to resubmit a previously failed Dissertation.

An application fee for recognition of prior learning (per module). Such applications may be made throughout the year.

If you are permitted to transfer to the MSc Organizational Psychology or the MSc Human Resource Management from the PGDip Organizational Psychology or Human Resource Management, you will not normally be required to pay a new registration fee for the degree, but will be required to pay the appropriate remaining module fees.

If you are permitted to proceed from an Individual module taken on a stand-alone basis to the MSc/PGDip Organizational Psychology or Human Resource Management, you will be required to pay the relevant registration fee and the fee for the remaining modules.

How to pay

Details on how to pay your fees are available on the website.

Your payment provider may apply additional transaction fees, including in respect of any refunds. (If in doubt, please check with them before making a payment.) Further information about fee payment options can be found in the link above.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.

Fee increases

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.
