

Schedule of Programme Fees*

Postgraduate Laws

Federation members: Queen Mary and University College London

* 'Programme Fees' mean fees payable to the University which include, where applicable, registration fees, continuing registration fees, module/course fees, dissertation fees and assessment entry fees as indicated below.

Important: the table below does not include fees payable to a third party, such as tuition costs payable to a Recognised Teaching Centre or fees charged by your local examination centre, or local VAT, Goods or Services Tax \(GST\) or sales tax.

Fees payable 2023-24 session

The Programme Fees below refer to the 2023-2024 session only and are effective from 1 June 2023.

Postgraduate Laws Fee Schedule

** Prior to 2023-24, an initial registration fee was charged in addition to the module fees. From 2023-24 the initial registration fee has been conglomerated into the fee for each module. Therefore, students initially registered before the 2023-24 academic year will pay reduced module fees to account for the initial registration fee already paid.

*** The University will charge an online examination administration fee of £10 for each examination sitting held online. This fee will be charged at the point of exam entry and is in addition to the module fees as advertised for your programme.

Additional costs

In addition to the Programme Fees payable to the University, you should also budget for the fee charged by your local examination centre (if applicable to your programme of study). Examination centre fees are not included within the fees set out above. This fee will vary from centre to centre and you should contact your proposed examination centre(s) for details of their fees to factor them in to the overall cost of completing the programme. You can find contact details for all our examination centres on this page. The University of London is only responsible for the examination centre fee charged at London centres of £94 per sitting.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The University is required to add Goods and Services Tax (GST) to certain fees paid by students resident in certain countries. Further information can be found on our web page.

All student fees shown are net of any local VAT, Goods and Services Tax (GST) or any other sales tax payable by the student in their country of residence. Where the University is required to add VAT, GST or any other sales tax at the local statutory rate, this will be added to the fees shown during the payment process. For students residing in the UK, our fees are exempt from VAT.

What to pay

Programme Fees may be paid either as a Whole fee covering all module fees for the LLM, PGDip, PGCert or the fees for the modules you select to study in the first year. To complete your registration, you must pay the fee for at least one module.

The module fee is payable once per module (unless a Whole fee has been paid) and includes the first entry to the examination.

Additionally, where applicable, you may be required to pay:

- An examination resit fee when entering for an examination to resit a previously failed module.
- An extension of registration fee if you are permitted to extend your period of registration for a stand-alone Individual module.
- A non-refundable application fee to have prior learning considered for accreditation on the degree programme. Such applications may be made throughout the year.
- An administrative fee for changing modules.

If you are permitted to transfer to the PGDip or LLM from the PGCert or PGDip (as applicable), you will not be required to pay a new registration fee, but will be required to pay the appropriate remaining module fees.

Postgraduate Laws Fee Schedule

If you are permitted to proceed from a stand-alone individual module to the PGCert, PGDip or LLM, you will be required to pay the appropriate fees for the remaining modules.

When to pay

New students must register by 15 April to take their first exams in October, or by 10 November to take their first exams the following May but may register and pay fees for modules throughout the year.

You must purchase new modules by 15 February if you wish to sit exams for these modules in May. You must purchase new modules by 25 August if you wish to sit exams for these modules in October.

How to pay

Details on how to pay your fees are available on the website.

Generally, students whose fees are paid by sponsors will be expected to correspond directly with their sponsor regarding Programme Fees. The University can provide an invoice, if needed, upon request. Materials will not be despatched and VLE access will not be available until Programme Fees have been received.

Fee increases

Programme Fees are subject to annual revision and typically may be increased by up to 5% per annum.
